ACT Project

ABOUT ACT PROJECT

ACT is a 1-year initiative, aimed at fostering youth engagement, promoting physical activity and enhancing social inclusion through the dynamic and accessible sport of Teqball. Its target are 48 youth (15-20 y/o) trained over 40 sessions and 12 coaches, trained in 2 levels - basic and advanced. Together with this, the project has a robust dissemination strategy through social media platforms, website and on-site events.

THE PROJECT PARTNERS

The consortium is build between 4 organisations from Turkey, Bulgaria and Hungary on the principles of exchanging good practices and knowledge and strenghtening cooperation:

- Kahramanmaras Metropolitan Municipality (Coordinator, Turkey)
- Champions Factory (Bulgaria)
- MASODIK ESLEY SPORTEGYESULET (Hungary)
- KAHRAMANMARAS AMATOR SPOR KULUPLERI FEDERASY (Turkey)

TARGET GROUPS OF THE PROJECT

The primary target group of ACT is young people, particularly those who have limited access to affordable sports opportunities and those from disadvantaged socio-economic backgrounds.

- Local coaches, who will develop their Teqball knowledge and coaching skills.
- Youths, who can benefit from the project's training and educational resources.

By bringing these groups together through sport, ACT aims to strengthen social interaction, cultural exchange and community cohesion.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE IN THE PROJECT SO FAR

- Finalised all training resources, available on our website;
- Finalised 2 meetings - Kick-off Meeting and quarterly meeting;
- Installation of 3 teqball tables;
- Implemented L1 and L2 trainings in Turkey and Hungary;
- Completed L1 training in Bulgaria;
- Finalised Communication materials, including logo and website;
- Started developing the Educational and Awareness (E&A) Videos
- Started youth trainings in Turkey and finised recruitment in Hungary

WHAT WE WILL DO NEXT IN THE PROJECT

The partnership will continue implementing the Youth Teqball Training program across all partner countries, together with finalising the coaches trainings in Bulgaria and starting the youth trainings there.

By beginning of next year, each partner will implement their local tournament between the 12 youth trained and participante in the international tournament in Hungary in spring 2027! The partnership will further implement an awareness campaign targeting 400 people across the partner countries to promote the physical, mental and social benefits of Teqball.
